

Mental Health Matchmakers is recruiting for a leading residential treatment center, committed to offering sophisticated therapeutic solutions for their clients.

Location: Los Lunas, NM

Level of care: Child Residential Treatment Center

The Perks:

- Enjoy a competitive salary range of $80K to $95K, acknowledging your experience, degree, and licensure.
- Access health, dental, and vision insurance, prioritizing your overall well-being.
- Access professional development and continued education support.
- Benefit from a generous vacation and paid time off policy for a healthy work-life balance.
- Join a supportive, inclusive work culture dedicated to personal and professional growth, creating a culture of empowerment and well-being.
- Support to grow professionally through continued education support.

What you'll do:

Engage in Transformative Therapy: Conduct individual and group therapy sessions using a client-centered approach, fostering a safe and empathetic space for healing.

Personalized Care: Conduct comprehensive assessments to craft personalized treatment plans, adapting therapeutic approaches to meet individual needs.

Collaborate for Success: Work seamlessly with interdisciplinary teams to ensure effective client care, fostering a holistic approach to mental health.

Track Progress: Maintain detailed client records and progress notes, consistently monitoring and adjusting treatment plans to optimize outcomes.

What you bring:

Educational background: Possess a Master's degree in Social Work, Counseling, or a related field. Current licensure is required. Your commitment to excellence sets you apart.

Effective Communication: Demonstrate outstanding communication and interpersonal skills, building authentic connections with clients and colleagues.

Empowerment and Collaboration: Thrive in both independent and collaborative environments, contributing unique perspectives to a team dedicated to transformative healing.